

GREGORY B.H. WHITING
85 Sunnylea Cres.
Guelph, Ontario

(519) 763-5027
ggwent@rogers.com

BACKGROUND SUMMARY

- Recent experience as a CMM Operator in the auto parts manufacturing industry
- Highly motivated, reliable, conscientious, and eager to learn
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills with the ability to work independently or as part of a team
- Proven organizational skills with the ability to adapt to changing priorities and objectives
- Accustomed to working to deadlines while maintaining high standards of accuracy and customer satisfaction

RECENT EDUCATION & CERTIFICATION

Levels 1 & 2, PC-DMIS Programming, CMM Inc., completed December 2006

Co-Ordinate Measuring Machines (CMM), Conestoga College, completed March 2002

Certified Quality Technician (CQT), received certification from ASQ, October 2001

HJM Quality Education Consultants, Quality Education Diploma, graduating June 2001

- Significant areas of study:
 - Statistical Process Control
 - Metrology and Calibration
 - Blueprint Reading
 - Geometric Dimensioning and Tolerancing
 - Quality Systems (ISO 9000, QS 9000) and Quality Auditing
- Consistently maintained an average above 90%

RECENT QUALITY ASSURANCE EXPERIENCE

Dana Canada, Structural Solutions Division, Guelph, Ontario

CMM Operations, using PC-DMIS Cad++3.7 on a Brown & Sharpe Typhoon
June 2003 – present

- responsible for measuring a daily schedule of robotically-welded auto parts
- assisted in troubleshooting out-of-spec conditions and making CMM program changes when required
- responsible for calibrating approximately 200 attribute and variable gauges used in production
- completed weekly C_p and C_{pk} reports, biweekly correlation studies, and annual gauge R&R studies

GREGORY B.H. WHITING

(519) 763-5027
ggwent@rogers.com

Engineered Solutions Corporation, Cambridge, Ontario

Quality Inspector, third-party inspection at Autocom, Vehcom and Emtol Manufacturing, all Linamar companies
August 2001 – June 2003

- responsible for the quality inspection of precision machined auto parts in a QS 9000 environment
- prepared daily reports of accepted and non-conforming parts following inspection to the criteria established by Linamar's customers
- site co-ordinator responsible for the training of quality inspectors and liaising with Linamar QA personnel

COMPUTER SOFTWARE

- Achieved proficiency in the following software programs:

Microsoft Excel	Word for Windows
PC-DMIS Cad++3.7	Database
QSI gauging software

FORMER EMPLOYMENT

The Home Depot

Sales Associate,
October 1999 to February 2001

Investors Group Financial Services

Representative and PFP Consultant,
October 1996 to October 1999

EDUCATION

CGA Ontario
Completed 4th Level

University of Western Ontario
Bachelor of Arts (Zoology)

ACTIVITIES AND INTERESTS

- Astronomy, birdwatching, sailing, photography, camping, woodworking and home renovations

REFERENCES

- Available upon request